MC – TIM CLARK

King of the Comperes & former speech writer for Gordon Brown...

Looking like a near spitting image of mad "world number one referee" Pierluigi Collina - Tim Clark is one of the unsung giants and heroes of British comedy. As The Guardian said about him: "Comperes are the unsung heroes of stand-up comedy. The current master of this underrated art is Tim Clark." Tim's cult status continued to rise when he became the patient and personable "grim reaper" of Virgin Atlantic's award-winning ad campaign. He has also hosted the BBC's classic game show, Give Us A Clue, featured as a know-it-all panelist on That's Show business, and written speeches for former England football manager Graham Taylor, the Prime Minister Gordon Brown MP and numerous other TV presenters.

OPENING – STEVE DAY

Abnormally Funny People (Sky), The Sound Barrier (BBC), Natural Born Talent (Ch4)

Steve Day is a truly unique comedian - warm, witty and engaging whilst dealing with the dilemmas of being a deaf man in a hearing world. His stories of multiple children, wearing a suit and the problems caused by not knowing how words are pronounced will have audiences in raptures, and his uplifting tales of overcoming the obstacles in his path will leave crowds feeling inspired.

HEADLINE – MILTON JONES

28 Acts (BBC 3), The Big Stage (Ch5), The Stand-Up Show (BBC), The World Stands Up (Paramount), The Comedy Factory - 2006, (Dutch TV)

Winner of the prestigious Perrier Best Newcomer Award back in 1996 for his first solo show and returned this year as a Perrier Nominee, Milton Jones is one of the most talented comics in the business. The star of his own radio series The Very World of Milton Jones, which made its debut last year, he was and was nominated for a British Comedy Award for Best Radio. He is currently working on the second series. On the less cerebral TV, his appearances include Planet Mirth, a 20 part sketch series for ITV/Sci Fi Channel, working with Phil Jupitus and guesting on shows such as Bring Me The Head of Light Entertainment. He even appeared in The Chronicles of Narnia.
